

Greg Moses PT, DPT

Physical Therapist

Hometown: Orange, CA

Bachelor's Degree: Chapman University - Kinesiology

Graduate Degree: University of St. Augustine - Doctorate Physical Therapy

Greg Moses is an Orange County native with a passion for helping others and making a difference in his community. He grew up in Orange and went to Mater Dei High School where he excelled as Captain of the football team. Following High School he enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard where he specialized in Search and Rescue operations and infrastructure protection. He received two Coast Guard Achievement Medals and spent a year overseas serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

He chose to pursue his passion in Physical Therapy and has been in the field for six years specializing in manual therapy and orthopedics. Greg enjoys helping people on a daily basis reach their goals of achieving pain free function and optimizing their quality of life.

His interests include hiking, surfing, and spending time with his beautiful wife Katherine, who is also a Physical Therapist. He is an enthusiastic and energetic person who genuinely enjoys treating his patients with a personalized approach to improving function and returning to a happy and healthy lifestyle.